Ethical Standards Survey Results 2014

Report No ADCSI/2/14/JF/DW of the Assistant Director – Customer Services and Improvement

This report is public

Purpose of the Report

- This report describes the results from the four ethical standards surveys conducted in April – May 2014.

1 Report Details

- 1.1 There were four separate questionnaires for different audiences: officers; District Councillors; Parish Councillors and Parish Clerks. The report presents the summary findings from all four surveys.
- 1.2 The report includes narrative, data tables, open comments and the demographic profile of respondents.
- 1.3 While the results are shown in percentages for consistency throughout the report the sample sizes of two of the surveys are very small.

2 Conclusions and Reasons for Recommendation

- 2.1 No conclusions or recommendations are given in the report. The Committee is presented with the data for use in their own decision making process.

3 Consultation and Equality Impact

- 3.1 The report has been compiled by the Consultation and Community Involvement Coordinator who is the only officer or member to have seen the data or questionnaires.
- 3.2 The questionnaires were available in paper and electronic formats. Large print, alternative language and alternative formats were available on request. There are no further equality impacts identified in the collection of the data.
