RECORD OF DECISION TAKEN BY THE Director of Environment and Enforcement

Xx March 2020

Chesterfield Road Duckmanton

Authority for decision	Decision	Reasons	Alternative options considered and rejected	Conflicts of interest and any dispensation
4.10.9 (14) of the Delegation Scheme as amended by the Emergency Powers delegations approved on 27th March 2020	To continue with the transaction even though there is one fewer units of affordable housing than was originally agreed.	Cabinet under the previous administration, agreed that it would fund the scheme by way of commuted sum receipts to the value of £140,000. The scheme is for 100% social housing. The developer is East Midlands Housing (EMH) group and the site is Chesterfield Road, Long Duckmanton. As part of the planning process, a unit has had to be removed from the proposal. The decision is to proceed even though the number of units has decreased by one and that	Any alternative options would result in the repayment of the commuted receipts to the developer with interest. This is not considered a feasible option.	None
